A Guided Tour of The Commonwealth Brewing Co.

Draught beers are served at cellar temperature and come in two sizes.

Pint (16 oz.)$3.00

Half Pint (10 oz.)$2.25

Blond Ale This American adaption of Bavarian Weizenbier (wheat beer) is light, crisp, and refreshing. Served frosty cold.

Best Burton Bitter Smooth and laced with the fragrance of hops in the manner of a traditional English Pale Ale. The national drink of England.

Famous Porter Deep in color, a creamy, sweet, nutty ale aged a month to six weeks.

Golden Ale A pale refreshing ale with medium body and superior smoothness. Finished with Talisman and Cascade hops.

Amber Ale Russet red and richly fragrant of Goldings hops. This beer balances sweet and bitter flavors with delicate grace.

Classic Stout Strong and nearly black, our stout contains a buried hint of sweetness. A classic Irish stout.

Shandy An equal mixture of lemon soda and Burton Bitter. Crisp and clean.

Black & Tan A popular blend of our Classic Stout and Boston Bitter.

Amber or Bitter Tops
Our famous Amber Ale or Burton Bitter served with a spritz of lemon soda.

In The Bottle:

Special Old Ale Aged for six months to one year, this barley-wine bottled ale has the complexity of a fine sherry. Served at room temperature or frosty cold.

Golden Export Our light refreshing lager with just a hint of sweetness. Served frosty cold in a bottle.

Additional Blends:

Black & Gold Our Golden Ale splashed with sweet black currant.

Gold & Lime Our refreshing Golden Ale splashed with tangy lime.

Seasonal Brews:

Ask your server for this season's specialty.
